

GSEB CLASS 10 SOCIAL SCIENCE

Chapter 9: Forest and Wildlife Resources - Section B

SECTION B

Q1. What is meant by a Sanctuary?

- Meaning: A wildlife sanctuary is a protected area established mainly for the protection of specific species.
- Human Activities: Certain human activities are permitted within limits in a sanctuary.
- Grazing: Domesticated animals may be allowed to graze with permission from the authorities.
- Examples: Periyar, Chandraprabha and Eturnagaram are famous sanctuaries.

Q2. What is meant by Bio-reserve zone?

- Meaning: A Bio-reserve zone is a large protected area established according to international norms.
- Purpose: It protects the natural and cultural diversity of a region.
- Protection: It protects plants, animals, insects, land and the lifestyle of local people.
- Size: Its average area is more than 5,000 sq. km.

Q3. What is National Park?

- Meaning: A National Park is a protected area established for the conservation of flora, fauna and natural beauty.
- Protection: It is more protected than a sanctuary and includes more than one ecosystem.
- Restriction: There is a complete ban on grazing of domesticated animals.
- Examples: Kaziranga, Corbett, Velavadar, Marine National Park, Gir and Dachigam are important National Parks.

Created by Gulshan

Business Contact: gulshanprajapatiofficial@gmail.com