

GSEB CLASS 10 SOCIAL SCIENCE

Chapter 3: Cultural Heritage of India: Sculpture and Architecture - Section B

SECTION B

Q1. In the religious field, which temples have been built in Gujarat.

- Important Temples: Gujarat has many famous temples such as Somnath, Dwarkadhish, Modhera Sun Temple and Ambaji.
- Other Temples: Mahakali Temple at Pavagadh, Bahucharaji, Shamlaji and Ranchhodraiji Temple at Dakor are also important.
- Swaminarayan Temples: Gujarat is also known for its beautiful Swaminarayan temples.
- Religious Heritage: These temples show the rich religious and architectural heritage of Gujarat.

Q2. Which are the places in India where the remains of the Indus Valley Civilization have been discovered?

- Major Sites: Important remains have been discovered at Harappa and Mohenjo-daro in the north-western region.
- Other Places: Important sites include Ropar, Kalibangan and Alamgirpur.
- Gujarat Sites: In Gujarat, important remains have been found at Lothal, Dholavira, Rangpur, Desalpur, Shikarpur, Rojdi and Kuntasi.
- Importance: These sites show the wide spread of the Indus Valley Civilization in India.

Q3. Write about the stupa at Sanchi.

- Location: The Sanchi Stupa is situated at Sanchi in Madhya Pradesh.
- Period: Its original construction was begun during the reign of Ashoka in the Mauryan period.
- Structure: The original stupa was built of bricks and was smaller than the present structure.
- Importance: It is a famous example of Buddhist architecture and reflects the high artistic skill of ancient India.

Q4. Give information about the Pillar of Sarnath.

- Sculptural Excellence: The Sarnath pillar is regarded as one of the finest examples of ancient Indian sculpture.
- Lion Capital: Four lions are shown standing back-to-back at the top of the capital.
- Symbols: The abacus carries Dharma wheels and figures of an elephant, horse and bull.
- National Emblem: The Lion Capital of Sarnath became the basis of the national emblem of India.

Q5. Explain the importance of architectural style of Gopuram.

- Meaning: Gopuram is the grand entrance gateway of a South Indian temple.
- Artistic Feature: It is built with high walls and richly decorated gateways covered with sculptures and ornaments.
- Famous Examples: The Gopurams of Kanchi and Madurai are well known for their artistic beauty.
- Importance: The Gopuram adds grandeur to temples and reflects the high standard of South Indian temple architecture.

Q6. In which three main parts were the towns in the Indus Valley civilization divided?

- Citadel: The upper fortified part, called the citadel, contained important buildings.
- Lower Town: The lower town contained the residential area where ordinary people lived.
- Residential and Public Areas: Towns were systematically planned with separate spaces for houses, public buildings and other activities.
- Town Planning: This division shows the well-organized urban planning of the Indus Valley Civilization.